

Bethel House,

W. F. Lovejoy & Son, Pro'rs,
BETHEL, MAINE.

This popular house has been repaired since the season, the stable and other buildings have been moved to the rear of the house, thus leaving the view of the Mountains unobstructed. Parties wanting a quiet summer home will find this one of the most desirable places in the Mountain region.

H. C. BARKER,
—Manufacturers Agent, Dealer in—

Doors, Sashes
Window Blinds.

FOOT OF HIGH ST., - BETHEL, MAINE.

C. L. DAVIS,
General Trucking and Dealer in COAL, ICE, &c.

Trucking of every kind promptly attended to. Orders to be left at home.

O. L. DAVIS,
MAIN STREET, - BETHEL, MAINE.

BUSINESS

Actual business by mail and common carrier at

The Shaw Business College

PORTLAND AND AUGUSTA, ME.

F. L. SHAW, PRINCIPAL, - PORTLAND.

Burnham & Barney's

STANDARD ORCHESTRA

OF BERLIN, N. H.

(6 TO 8 PIECES.)

Up to date music furnished for all occasions. Public or Private.

Terms Reasonable.

DR. C. L. BUCK,

DENTIST.

SOUTH PARIS, - MAINE.

It is our aim to save teeth, not destroy them.

We visit Lockes Mills every second

Wednesday.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

WANTED!

ALL KINDS OF

FURS &

SKINS.

Highest Cash Prices

—PAID FOR—

Bear, Fisher.

Fox, Skunk,

Mink, Martin.

S. N. BUCK,

BETHEL, - MAINE.

H. L. HORNE

Manufacturer and Dealer in

LUMBER

Hard Wood Flooring, Moldings,

Brackets, Door and Window

Frames, Sash, Blinds

And Doors. Door &

Window Screens a specialty. Cedar hitching Posts, and L. N. Small's Clothes Reels, large stock of all kinds of Shingles, Clapboards, Sheathing and House Finish.

Ladders are useful in case of fire.

MILL AND LUMBER YARD AT FALLS,

Norway, Maine.

N. F. BROWN,

—Dealer in—

Stoves,

Hardware,

Paints, Oils Etc.

BETHEL, - MAINE.

E. E. WHITNEY & Co.,

BETHEL, ME.

Marble & Granite

Workes.

Chaste Designs,

First-Class workmanship.

Letters of inquiry promptly answered. See our work.

Get our prices.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

E. E. WHITNEY & CO.

Without

Doubt

the best place to buy

Men's, Women's

& CHILDREN'S

UNDERWEAR

AND

* FOOTWEAR *

—IS AT—

G. P. BEAN'S.

The County News.

SHORT PARAGRAPHS Collected by our Local Correspondents, for the BETHEL NEWS.

TO CORRESPONDENTS,

You are earnestly requested to send us the news from your locality every week. If you get out of stationery drop us a line. In every town where we have not already got a correspondent we would like to make arrangements with some person to furnish us with items. Write us.

WEST BETHEL.

Sleighting at last, and all are happy.

Edgar and Elmer Briggs went to Gilead, Friday, to visit their two sisters there, and returned Saturday.

Mrs. Hannah Watson died quite suddenly, Thursday night. She leaves one child, a son, who has worked for Orrin Foster in Newry for a number of years.

We admire the improved appearance of the News with its page of county items, its "Children's Column" and "News of the State." Every son and daughter of Bethel now residing in other states, must find much to interest them in this home sheet.

BUCKFIELD.

C. B. Atwood was in Boston last week after goods.

All business has been at a standstill for want of snow.

Yes, the people are smiling by reason of the beautiful snow.

The Woman's Literary Club met with Mrs. A. W. Libby the 28th.

The Methodist society have banquet advertised for Friday evening.

Fred Atwood of Rumford Falls made a flying trip to this place, Monday.

The sick ones which I have mentioned in former locals, I am pleased to state are improving.

Hiram Conant's wife and seven children, living about two miles out, are sick with the measles.

The water syndicate is sighing for wind. Wind mills are a feeble institution without wind.

E. A. Warren & Son are soon to have an auction of sleighs. This has been a hard winter for a sleigh dealer.

R. C. Thames and Lee Bridgman had a lucky fall from a staging on the M. E. church extension. Both arrived on the frozen ground unhurt.

People discuss this comparatively snowless winter, and this one and that, sometime in the misty past, can remember just such a one but we seriously doubt that the oldest inhabitant ever witnessed just such a one.

Alfred Cole's adjourned auction for Saturday, although stormy, was more of a success than that of the week previous. More goods were sold, without considering the one Bible that was sold, and this by advertising and the determination of the auctioneer Bridgman to sell at least one.

The Harper's Ferry Quartette gave entertainments at the Baptist church the 22nd and 23rd. They were fairly well patronized and although two of their number were quite ill with severe colds, their entertainments were good, and "de ole plantation melodies," which were interpreted, were very pleasing.

"Oh, the beautiful snow, how every one rejoices to see it, and how the sleigh bells are jingling!"

The Reading Club met at J. A. French's the 22nd, with an attendance of thirty-six.

Mrs. Ellen Keene from Poland, is stopping at R. Town's a few weeks.

Charles Foster and his sister Carrie, have returned to Lynn, Mass.

People around here are hauling their ice this week.

B. H. Macalaster with a crew of men and horses are moving a building from Elmer Drew's to his place a mile or more, for a sugar house.

GRAPTON.

O. B. Dodge went to Norway, Monday.

Daisy Brooks was home from Bethel, over Sunday; she was accompanied by Miss Beatrice Kelher.

A surprise party at J. H. Farrar's Saturday night, at which all appeared to have a good time.

About five inches of snow fell last Friday night, and a little more Sunday making quite good sleighing.

VERTICAL WRITING.

Telegraphers are mainly responsible for its introduction here.

If the vertical handwriting which is being taught in our public schools prevails, and because the ordinary handwriting, the people who enjoy its advantages will have in large measure the telegraphers to thank for it. They have been the pioneers of vertical writing. For the last twenty years almost every telegraph operator in the country has written a round, vertical hand, plainer than any other sort of handwriting known, with round, fat loops for the letters which drop below the line, and simple capitals. This telegrapher's handwriting has much in common with the English "civil service handwriting," which may have preceded it, but the civil service hand is less often vertical and has certain points of difference. Men's handwriting tends in a general way to conform to the fashion of Roman print prevalent at any time, and as the most ordinary print letter nowadays is of a round or Scottish face, it is not strange on the whole that the tendency in handwriting is toward a round letter. Women's chirography is more capricious in its fashion, though it has inclined pretty steadily now for several years toward angular brevity.

THE COUNTY NEWS.

George Bennett is breaking his colt.

S. O. Grover is hauling ice for O. G. Mason.

L. E. Tyler is helping his brother, Arthur, out ice.

A. A. Richmond is cutting timber for C. L. Abbott.

Ernest Merrill and Willard Mason, are hauling white ash for N. G. Mills.

The ladies' sewing circle will meet with Miss Annie Merrill, Wednesday afternoon and evening.

LETTER FROM WEST BETHEL.

West Bethel, Jan. 20, 1896.

While at Bethel recently, we were pleased to notice the thriving business done in that village, and to find each one on duty at their place of business with enough to do to wait on their several customers, which shows that each one gets his share of patronage.

The place is well supplied with lawyers, doctors, sheriffs, merchants, photographers, and very enterprising farmers, beside men of other callings too numerous to mention. We will note a few of our pleasant calls.

First we called on our friend Ellingwood, proprietor of the Bethel News; we found a nice, neat looking office, with the proprietor himself hard at work, with several hands busy at their part of the work. Mr. Ellingwood has by untiring effort established a nice and newsy paper, which continues to improve each week; and this remark is being made by many. You should try it, only $1.25 per year. If you have never seen a copy send to the office and get a sample, which will be freely sent you.

Our next call was at the photograph studio; we found the proprietor, Irving Kimball, at his post of duty, ready to accommodate all in want of anything in his line of business. He has a great many different views of Bethel and vicinity, and these with other excellent photographs show that he does first class work. He is ready to supply you with good photographs or anything that comes in his line of business, at reasonable rates. Give him a call; it will cost you nothing to look over his stock and get prices.

We then called on sheriff Penley; we found him very sociable and ready to attend to the duties of his office; he is a good man for the office he holds.

Our time was limited, so we made but few more calls, but we wish to mention our friend E. S. Smith, the hen fancier and proprietor of the Hillside poultry farm; he has over three hundred hens and roosters, which he cares for each day, and through all the crowing and cackling he wears a smile on his face as he goes from pen to pen and gathers up his hundred eggs per day. He is an expert at the business.

JERSEY CITY'S CHARON.

Ferries Run Over "The Gap," and, Like the Styx Boatman, Gets Your Obolus First.

The shortest of all ferries, and one of the ordinary New York only stumbles across through some narrow channel, and is that at "The Gap," between Communipaw and Jersey City, says the New York Herald.

Go to Communipaw and then ask some one how to get to Jersey City, and the chances are that you will be told to return to New York and take another ferry. But if your informant be a trainman, particularly a Lehigh Valley man, he will tell you to risk your life by crossing the tracks of a great railroad system, wading two hundred yards and finding the shortest of ferries.

There you will find a great wide rowing boat, a solemn visaged man and about fifty yards of unbridled water. The fare is two cents. He of the solemn visage collects it before he leaves the Communipaw side. He does not row; he sculls and propels the boat with a single oar from the stern. Sometimes he earns thirty cents on one passage.

He is a great admirer of the Pennsylvania railroad and an ardent admirer of the Pennsylvania corporation. Some time ago it was proposed to bridge the gap. The Pennsylvania objected. But for that were Charon's occupation gone.

So now he swears by the Pennsylvania and at the Lehigh Valley, for the employees of the last named railroad have a ferry of their own.

Cigarette Smoking in England.

It is puzzling to account for the different status of the cigarette in England and the United States. It is very rare to find a man past middle life smoking cigarettes, yet the statement is made on good authority that Herbert Spencer, who is seventy-five, smokes them, and it is in evidence in reading the personal gossip of London weekly papers that the same fault (from a cigar smoker's point of view) is alleged against many men of prominence in life. When Emily Faithful died the story of her fondness for cigarettes was repeated, and it shocked many American readers; but Miss Faithful was not unique among English ladies in this indulgence. In the case of the men perhaps the inferior quality of their cigars and the proximity of England to the continent may account for the preference given the cigarette.

Victoria's Crown Not Often Worn.

The fact that Victoria has only worn her crown sixteen times is not surprising when it is known that the royal diadem weighs a few pounds less than a barrel of flour. There is really no reason why a royal head should be transformed into a pedestal, and Queen Victoria proves that she possesses some good, hard democratic sense by refusing to pose as a royal heavyweight head balancer.

Art of Chinese Burglars.

The Chinese burglar takes an ingredient of his own, burns it and blows the smoke through the keyhole of the bedroom where the master of the house is asleep. The fumes dull the senses of the victim just enough to make him helpless, while at the same time permitting him to see and hear everything that goes on in the room. The only antidote against the charm is pure water, and most of the wealthy Chinese sleep with a basin of this near their heads.

THE COUNTY NEWS.

George Bennett is breaking his colt.

S. O. Grover is hauling ice for O. G. Mason.

L. E. Tyler is helping his brother, Arthur, out ice.

A. A. Richmond is cutting timber for C. L. Abbott.

Ernest Merrill and Willard Mason, are hauling white ash for N. G. Mills.

The ladies' sewing circle will meet with Miss Annie Merrill, Wednesday afternoon and evening.

LETTER FROM WEST BETHEL.

West Bethel, Jan. 20, 1896.

While at Bethel recently, we were pleased to notice the thriving business done in that village, and to find each one on duty at their place of business with enough to do to wait on their several customers, which shows that each one gets his share of patronage.

The place is well supplied with lawyers, doctors, sheriffs, merchants, photographers, and very enterprising farmers, beside men of other callings too numerous to mention. We will note a few of our pleasant calls.

First we called on our friend Ellingwood, proprietor of the Bethel News; we found a nice, neat looking office, with the proprietor himself hard at work, with several hands busy at their part of the work. Mr. Ellingwood has by untiring effort established a nice and newsy paper, which continues to improve each week; and this remark is being made by many. You should try it, only $1.25 per year. If you have never seen a copy send to the office and get a sample, which will be freely sent you.

Our next call was at the photograph studio; we found the proprietor, Irving Kimball, at his post of duty, ready to accommodate all in want of anything in his line of business. He has a great many different views of Bethel and vicinity, and these with other excellent photographs show that he does first class work. He is ready to supply you with good photographs or anything that comes in his line of business, at reasonable rates. Give him a call; it will cost you nothing to look over his stock and get prices.

We then called on sheriff Penley; we found him very sociable and ready to attend to the duties of his office; he is a good man for the office he holds.

Our time was limited, so we made but few more calls, but we wish to mention our friend E. S. Smith, the hen fancier and proprietor of the Hillside poultry farm; he has over three hundred hens and roosters, which he cares for each day, and through all the crowing and cackling he wears a smile on his face as he goes from pen to pen and gathers up his hundred eggs per day. He is an expert at the business.

MASON.

George Bennett is breaking his colt.

S. O. Grover is hauling ice for O. G. Mason.

L. E. Tyler is helping his brother, Arthur, out ice.

A. A. Richmond is cutting timber for C. L. Abbott.

Ernest Merrill and Willard Mason, are hauling white ash for N. G. Mills.

The ladies' sewing circle will meet with Miss Annie Merrill, Wednesday afternoon and evening.

LETTER FROM WEST BETHEL.

West Bethel, Jan. 20, 1896.

While at Bethel recently, we were pleased to notice the thriving business done in that village, and to find each one on duty at their place of business with enough to do to wait on their several customers, which shows that each one gets his share of patronage.

The place is well supplied with lawyers, doctors, sheriffs, merchants, photographers, and very enterprising farmers, beside men of other callings too numerous to mention. We will note a few of our pleasant calls.

First we called on our friend Ellingwood, proprietor of the Bethel News; we found a nice, neat looking office, with the proprietor himself hard at work, with several hands busy at their part of the work. Mr. Ellingwood has by untiring effort established a nice and newsy paper, which continues to improve each week; and this remark is being made by many. You should try it, only $1.25 per year. If you have never seen a copy send to the office and get a sample, which will be freely sent you.

Our next call was at the photograph studio; we found the proprietor, Irving Kimball, at his post of duty, ready to accommodate all in want of anything in his line of business. He has a great many different views of Bethel and vicinity, and these with other excellent photographs show that he does first class work. He is ready to supply you with good photographs or anything that comes in his line of business, at reasonable rates. Give him a call; it will cost you nothing to look over his stock and get prices.

We then called on sheriff Penley; we found him very sociable and ready to attend to the duties of his office; he is a good man for the office he holds.

Our time was limited, so we made but few more calls, but we wish to mention our friend E. S. Smith, the hen fancier and proprietor of the Hillside poultry farm; he has over three hundred hens and roosters, which he cares for each day, and through all the crowing and cackling he wears a smile on his face as he goes from pen to pen and gathers up his hundred eggs per day. He is an expert at the business.

JERSEY CITY'S CHARON.

Ferries Run Over "The Gap," and, Like the Styx Boatman, Gets Your Obolus First.

The shortest of all ferries, and one of the ordinary New York only stumbles across through some narrow channel, and is that at "The Gap," between Communipaw and Jersey City, says the New York Herald.

Go to Communipaw and then ask some one how to get to Jersey City, and the chances are that you will be told to return to New York and take another ferry. But if your informant be a trainman, particularly a Lehigh Valley man, he will tell you to risk your life by crossing the tracks of a great railroad system, wading two hundred yards and finding the shortest of ferries.

There you will find a great wide rowing boat, a solemn visaged man and about fifty yards of unbridled water. The fare is two cents. He of the solemn visage collects it before he leaves the Communipaw side. He does not row; he sculls and propels the boat with a single oar from the stern. Sometimes he earns thirty cents on one passage.

He is a great admirer of the Pennsylvania railroad and an ardent admirer of the Pennsylvania corporation. Some time ago it was proposed to bridge the gap. The Pennsylvania objected. But for that were Charon's occupation gone.

So now he swears by the Pennsylvania and at the Lehigh Valley, for the employees of the last named railroad have a ferry of their own.

Cigarette Smoking in England.

It is puzzling to account for the different status of the cigarette in England and the United States. It is very rare to find a man past middle life smoking cigarettes, yet the statement is made on good authority that Herbert Spencer, who is seventy-five, smokes them, and it is in evidence in reading the personal gossip of London weekly papers that the same fault (from a cigar smoker's point of view) is alleged against many men of prominence in life. When Emily Faithful died the story of her fondness for cigarettes was repeated, and it shocked many American readers; but Miss Faithful was not unique among English ladies in this indulgence. In the case of the men perhaps the inferior quality of their cigars and the proximity of England to the continent may account for the preference given the cigarette.

Victoria's Crown Not Often Worn.

The fact that Victoria has only worn her crown sixteen times is not surprising when it is known that the royal diadem weighs a few pounds less than a barrel of flour. There is really no reason why a royal head should be transformed into a pedestal, and Queen Victoria proves that she possesses some good, hard democratic sense by refusing to pose as a royal heavyweight head balancer.

Art of Chinese Burglars.

The Chinese burglar takes an ingredient of his own, burns it and blows the smoke through the keyhole of the bedroom where the master of the house is asleep. The fumes dull the senses of the victim just enough to make him helpless, while at the same time permitting him to see and hear everything that goes on in the room. The only antidote against the charm is pure water, and most of the wealthy Chinese sleep with a basin of this near their heads.

Heart Disease Kills

Suddenly, but never without warning symptoms such as Pain, Weak or Hungry Spells, Irregular or Inconstant Pulse, Fluttering or Palpitation of the Heart, Choking Sensations, Shortness of Breath, Swelling of Feet and Ankles, etc.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure,

Cures Heart Disease.

Mr. Geo. L. Smith, of the Geo. L. Smith Mantel Co., Louisville, Ky., writes Feb. 28, 1894: "For about a year I was a terrible sufferer from heart trouble, which got so bad I was obliged to sit up in bed to get my breath. I had to abandon business and could hardly crawl around. My friend, Mr. Julius C. Yogh, one of our leading pharmacists, asked me to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I had used little more than a bottle when the pain ceased and palpitations entirely disappeared. I have not had the slightest trouble since, and today I am attending to business as regularly as ever."

Sold by druggists everywhere. Book on Heart and Nerves sent free. Address Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Remedies Restore Health.

SPECIAL CLUBBING OFFER.

We have made arrangements to club the News with the following papers:

Rum News, Springfield, Ohio. $1.50

Woman's Weekly Journal. 1.65

Boston Daily Traveler. 1.85

2.50

Well Fixed.

"I suppose you get a good many tips, waiter?"

"Oh, yes, sir, from everybody."

"Then in that case there is no need for me to give you one. Good morning!"—St. James Budget.

Not to Be Trusted.

Those Foreign Chaps Get There Every Time.

"No, she can't keep a secret. The other day I confided to her that I was going to marry her own uncle, and the silly thing went and told him."—Life.

Will be wreathed with a most engaging smile, after you invest in a

White Sewing Machine

EQUIPPED WITH ITS NEW

PINCH TENSION,

TENSION INDICATOR

AUTOMATIC TENSION RELEASER.

The most complete and useful device ever added to any sewing machine.

The WHITE is

Durably and Handsomely Built,

Of Fine Finish and Perfect Adjustment,

Sows ALL Sewable Articles,

And will serve and please you up to the full limit of your expectations.

ACTIVE DEALERS WANTED in unoccupied territory. Liberal terms. Address,

WHITE SEWING MACHINE CO.,

CLEVELAND, O.

</

